HOWARD D. NEIDIG, JR. IS NAMED ASSISTANT TO REGIONAL DIRECTOR IN NLRB'S WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. OFFICE

Howard D. Neidig, Jr. has been appointed Assistant to the Regional Director in the NLRB's Winston-Salem, North Carolina Regional Office (Region 11), General Counsel Fred Feinstein announced today. A career Field Examiner, Mr. Neidig had been serving as the Assistant to the Regional Director in the agency's Hartford, Connecticut Office since September 20, 1995.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. It investigates and remedies unfair labor practices and conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation. Mr. Neidig, who plans to move to Winston-Salem in mid-April, will assist Regional Director Willie Clark in the processing of unfair labor practice and representation cases filed with the NLRB.

In announcing the appointment, General Counsel Feinstein stated:

"I am very pleased that Howard Neidig will be taking on the duties of Assistant to the Regional Director in Winston-Salem. He has developed an outstanding record as a supervisor and manager and is eminently qualified to serve in this position."

A native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Mr. Neidig received a B.A. degree from the Pennsylvania State University in 1971. He joined the NLRB that same year as a Field Examiner in the agency's Pittsburgh Regional Office. In 1979, he transferred to the Hartford Regional Office where he became a Compliance Officer in 1983 and advanced to the positions of Supervisory Compliance Officer in 1989 and Supervisory Field Examiner in 1991.

Mr. Neidig and his wife, Cynthia, have 3 daughters, Sarah (22), Stephanie (18), and Sloane (5). He enjoys spending time with his family and fly fishing.
